Montgomery College – Germantown Campus

The Executive Order Regarding Immigration

What is it?
What does it mean?
How does it affect us?
Rights and Responsibilities

Q & A

Friday, February 10
12:00-1:30
HT216/Globe Hall

Presenters:
Tomi Ojo-Ade is an associate attorney at The Employment Law Group law firm in Washington, D.C. Her practice is focused on federal immigration law, including deportation defense, business immigration, family-based immigration, and waivers of inadmissibility. Ms. Ojo-Ade holds a Master of Laws degree from the American University Washington College of Law, and a law degree from the Obafemi Awolowo University of Nigeria.

Professor Haydel holds a BA in Integrated International Studies from Knox College (1998) and an MA in Political Science from the University of Minnesota – Twin Cities (2004). Her teaching and research interests include peacebuilding, transitional justice in post-conflict environments, social movements, and interdisciplinary education. She has been teaching Political Science at Montgomery College since 2008. Jennifer has lived in California, Illinois, Minnesota, Germany, Georgia, and Maryland.

Sponsored by The Student Senate and the Student Life Office.
For more information and/or accommodations, contact Student Life, SA186/112 or 240-567-7841