Nancy J. Nuell
Master of Ceremonies

As Montgomery College’s director of business development and grants, Nancy J. Nuell seeks federal and state grants, private support, and partnerships in support of MC’s entrepreneurial programming and academic initiatives. She also provides direction and oversight for the Macklin Center for Entrepreneurship. Since coming to MC in 1989, she has served as director of educational support services and as director of information technology, eventually working at each of the campuses. She holds a bachelor of arts degree in psychology from the University of Michigan and a master of science degree in information science from the University of Illinois. She is a past president of the Potomac Rotary Club, an academic advisor for the Montgomery College Rotaract Club, and an active member of the National Association for Community College Entrepreneurship and the Council for Resource Development. Recently, she was appointed to the Loudoun County Library System Board of Trustees.

The Jazz Executives

The Jazz Executives, a trio based in College Park, Maryland, was founded by Anders Eliasson ’06 (drums). Mr. Eliasson is pursuing a degree in jazz studies at the University of Maryland, where he met the other two members, Andrew Webb (bass) and Jonathan Tippens (piano), also Maryland undergraduates. Mr. Webb graduated from Eubie Blake High School in Silver Spring and attended Towson University as a music education major, but transferred to Maryland after realizing his passion for jazz. Mr. Tippens, originally from Howard County, is double majoring in jazz studies and government.
2008 Athletic Hall of Fame Inductions

The Montgomery College Athletic Hall of Fame was established by members of the MC Club and College coaches to recognize former student athletes and coaches. Criteria for induction into the Athletic Hall of Fame include outstanding athletic achievement as a student, outstanding contributions as a coach, and/or outstanding athletic achievement as a player or coach after leaving MC.

John A. Division ’83

John Division played baseball for Montgomery College from 1981 to 1983. During this time, he was selected for the second team All-American and first team Region XIII, as well as being named MVP for the region and Maryland All-JUCO while leading all vote-getters. In 1982, he was also named as a Standout Baseball Player. He began working for the Central Intelligence Agency in 1987, two years after graduating from the University of Maryland. He has served for twenty years with the CIA with a focus on counter-espionage. For five years, he has been a manager and coach for baseball and basketball in the Mount Airy Athletic Association. In 1992, he was named Player of the Year for the Washington, D.C. Men’s Senior League, and he participated in the 1999 “Legends Classic” game at the Frederick Keys Stadium in recognition of his achievements at MC.

Tyrone R. Neal ’73

Tyrone Neal wrestled for Montgomery College in 1972 and 1973. During this time he twice won the JUCO Championships and Regional Championships. He also was named Outstanding Wrestler in the region in 1973. After Montgomery College, he wrestled for the University of Maryland from 1973 to 1975. He was the ACC Champion and Outstanding Wrestler both years and the team captain in 1975. He has also spent time coaching junior league and high school football teams. He spent five years coaching at South River High School in Edgewater, Maryland, and nine years at Southern High School in Harwood, Maryland. His Southern High School teams went to the state tournament four times, three of those times bringing home the state title.
Harold E. Walker ’79

Harold Walker played basketball on the Takoma Park Campus from 1978 to 1979. In 1979, he was named to the Maryland JUCO All-Conference first team and received an honorable mention for the NJCAA All-Region XX and All-American teams. In 1978, he was one of the NJCAA league leaders in rebounds, and in 1979, he led the nation in rebounds and was one of the top leaders in individual scoring and field goal percentage. In his second year, he was named MVP of the basketball team and Male Athlete of the Year for the Takoma Park Campus and set rebound records for the campus that still stand. After Montgomery College, he played for the University of Buffalo in 1980 and 1981. He was co-captain of the basketball team his senior year and president of the varsity club. He spent a year and a half as a resident advisor for the university. After graduating, he spent two years coaching 12-year-olds at First Baptist Academy, a private school in Orlando, Florida, first as assistant and then as co-head coach. Until last year, he was active in the YMCA basketball program. He is operations manager for Specialty Floor Designs of Central Florida in Orlando.

Thomas Bichy ’68–’05

Tom Bichy dedicated 37 years to Montgomery College as a teacher and coach. From 1968 to 2005, he was a professor in the Rockville Campus’ Health and Physical Education Department; for twenty-four of those years he was also the campus athletic director. Recognizing his distinguished service, the Montgomery College Board of Trustees awarded him the Silver Medallion and the rank of Professor Emeritus in 2006. He spent many of his MC years as head coach of the men’s soccer team. In 1997, he was named the National Soccer Coaches’ Division III Coach of the Year for Junior Colleges, and in 2005, he was named to the National Junior College Athletic Association Men’s Soccer Hall of Fame. He holds the record for most soccer games won by an NJCAA coach, with 471 wins. He has also coached women’s tennis and basketball and assistant coached men’s baseball at Rockville. In 1998, he was named to the Frederick County Sports Hall of Fame for participation in sports and coaching at Montgomery College. He also was inducted into the NJCAA Region XX Hall of Fame for outstanding coaching and administrative leadership as an athletic director.
The Milton F. (Sonny) Clogg
Outstanding Alumni Achievement Awards

Milton F. (Sonny) Clogg ’48

The Milton F. (Sonny) Clogg Outstanding Alumni Achievement Award is the College’s most prestigious award for former students. It is presented to those alumni who have demonstrated exemplary contributions to their professions, their communities, and/or the College.

Sonny Clogg, the first student president at Montgomery College, is a member of its first graduating class. Mr. Clogg assumed the lead role in creating an alumni association at the College, and he has served as its president. He also was a founding member of the Montgomery College Foundation and has served as chair of the foundation. He served as the campaign chair for the first building of the Gudelsky Institute for Technical Education on the Rockville Campus. Mr. Clogg was the first individual to endow a fully funded scholarship at Montgomery College and has given hundreds of thousands of dollars to the College. He was instrumental in starting the Annual Fund at MC and has served many times as the Annual Fund chairperson.

Mr. Clogg earned bachelor of law and juris doctor degrees from the Washington College of Law of the American University. He was granted Montgomery College’s first honorary degree in 1997. He was admitted to the bar of the State of Maryland (Court of Appeals) in 1951 and practiced law in Rockville for more than 50 years, retiring from his practice in 2003. He is now employed by the Shady Grove Adventist Hospital Foundation.

For all of his outstanding service to Montgomery College, the Alumni Association chose to name its highest award in honor of Milton F. (Sonny) Clogg.

Theodore L. Jarboe ’67

For more than 40 years, Ted Jarboe was a member of the Montgomery County Fire and Rescue Service, retiring as the county’s fire marshal. He was a lecturer and adjunct professor in the Fire Science program for 20 years. He is certified as an emergency manager and executive fire officer, United States Fire Administration, National Fire Academy, and is a member of the Institution of Fire Engineers. He is also a member of the Salamander Honorary Fire Protection Engineering Society at the University of Maryland, where he earned his bachelor’s and master’s degrees. In 2000, he designed a Web site for emergency responders to help prepare for and manage acts of terrorism. He has been a guest researcher at the National Institute of Standards and Technology and a member of the Army’s Chemical Weapons Improved Response Program. He is an instructor in the Defense Department’s Domestic Preparedness Train-the-Trainer program. He has written approximately 80 articles for fire service journals, and in 2007, he published Elevator and Escalator Rescue: A Comprehensive Guide.

Mirna Ostchega, RN ’90

After graduating from Montgomery College’s nursing program, Mirna Ostchega came back to teach full time within the program, passing up opportunities with other institutions. She also spends time serving as an advisor to students. She worked at Holy Cross Hospital as a nurse’s assistant during her time as an MC student. She earned her master’s degree in 1998 from the University of Maryland, and is now pursuing her doctorate at the School of Nursing at the Catholic University of America while maintaining her teaching position and instructing clinicals. She has a Critical Care Certified Specialty, and at least twice a month serves in the Washington Hospital Center’s intensive care unit, sometimes bringing her students along for observational experience. At the hospital, she works alongside two of her former students. About twice a year, she gives guest lectures for a Critical Care Registered Nurse review course for intensive care nurses who are trying to earn national certification.
Dr. Gordon Johnson ’99

After Navy Reserve service as a medical and casualty officer in the early 1950s, Gordon Johnson spent nine years practicing and teaching radiology at Stanford University, the University of Texas M.D. Anderson Cancer Center, and the University of Miami. He practiced in California hospitals from 1964 to 1977, and from 1977 to 1993, he was the senior physician for medical device regulation with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration. From 1999 to 2004, he was an assistant, then coordinator, for the YMCA’s senior tennis program. In his spare time, he took and finished nearly every computer applications class offered by Montgomery College. He also volunteered with the College’s Center for Teaching and Learning from 1999 through 2006, assisting faculty using the skills he had learned here. From 2001 to 2003, he assisted with computer courses at the Rockville Senior Citizens Center, further using his knowledge gained at Montgomery College to help others.

Dr. Mark E. Thompson ’75

In recent years, Mark Thompson has looked for ways to give back and support Montgomery College. He has assisted recruiting efforts at the County Agricultural Fair and at an open house on campus; lectured on agricultural chemicals for the Germantown Campus’ Spectrum Lecture Series; and he recently joined the advisory board for the Macklin Business Institute. He earned his Ph.D. in organic chemistry from Yale University in 1981 and has worked since then at E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company, making significant contributions to his field. As a research supervisor, he managed a group that developed an environmentally safe herbicide for the European wheat market. From 1999 to 2006, as a research manager and Six Sigma project manager, he delivered a new insecticide that was recognized by the Environmental Protection Agency for unprecedented low levels of toxicity to mammals and other non-target species. Since becoming head of discovery research in 2006, he has provided leadership for more than 250 scientists. He has been published in a variety of journals and holds 20 patents. He is a member of the American Chemical Society, is a reviewer for the Journal of Organic Chemistry, and is on the advisory committee of the PDMA Foundation’s New Product Institute.

Grateful acknowledgement is made to the alumni and friends of Montgomery College for their support of the Alumni Recognition Endowed Scholarship.

The Alumni Association appreciates the generous support of Provident Bank and AAA Mid-Atlantic, Sponsors of the 2008 Alumni Awards Dinner.

WE’RE A PROUD SPONSOR OF MONTGOMERY COLLEGE.

A strong community is a vibrant, living thing. The more we all participate in it, the more it grows. Which is why we’re happy, and honored, to participate in any way we can.

Salutes Montgomery College’s Outstanding Alumni & Athletes who have added so much to this great institution.
